Dear Natasha:

I am writing this letter to you to advise you of the divorce procedure that is ahead because I know that you don't trust anybody and you don't consult anybody. I advise you to give in to the divorce procedure in a mutual consent, otherwise you have to hire an attorney that will cost you a bundle.

If you ever go to court don't forget that the following subjects will be discussed and will be brought to the notice of the court.

- 1 - That you never had sex all these years. This means you did not fulfill your duties as a real wife.
- 2 - You may be either sexually or mentally incapable of being a real wife.
- 3 - You only married Siamak for your personal financial gain.

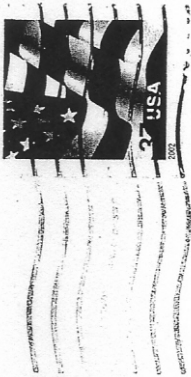

Therefore there is no way for you to get anything if you go to court even if your lawyer promise you otherwise

I haven't told Siamak that I have written this letter to you. If you want to tell him yourself it is your wish.
